COUNTY PICKS ITS FAVORITES

RUNS TRUE TO FORM IN ELECTING SPLIT TICKET.

BAILEY, WRIGHT HIGH

Williams Defeats Hawes Here By 178. —Prosecutor Is Re-Elected.— Mrs. Clardy Defeated.

Nodaway County ran "true to form" yesterday in that a split ticket was elected in the county and that there were many scratches on both the state and county ticket.

Senator George H. Williams carried the county over Harry B. Hawes for the short term by 179, and for the long term by 178. Then Charles A. Lee, Democrat, seeking re-election as state superintendent of schools, carried the county by 263 over W. S. Smith. Judge Ernest Gantt, Democrat, for judge of the supreme court, lost the county to Judge Robert W. Otto by 91 votes.

In the congressman race, Representative Charles L. Faust carried the county by 649 over Dr. J. C. Whitsell, Democrat.

All three of the present members of the county court, Judges E. T. Bailey, presiding judge, Charles S. Armstrong from the south district, and J. N. Billingsley for the north district, were elected easily. Bailey defeated Henry Heitman by 972 votes, while Armstrong had a lead of 717 over Dan Skidmore, and Billingsley won from Ol Coleman by 390. Judge Bailey has served twelve years as a member of the county court. He first was elected a member of the court from the north district, then re-elected, and for the last eight years has been presiding judge. Armstrong has served two terms, while Billingsley is now completing his first term.

William Job, Democrat, wes re-elected representative over W. H. Burr by a majority of 456. Mr. Job has been a members of the legislature for several terms. Burr's race was considered very good in that this was his first and that he was unknown in many parts of the county.

There apparently was more interest and more talk about the race for prosecuting attorney and many were predicting that the contest would be close. After the counting up of the vote, George P. Wright was re-elected to this office by 622 over Lowell L. Livengood. However, it was generally conceded that Livengood made a good showing, since it was his first time as a candidate and he was only recently admitted as a member of the bar. It was predicted that Livengood would be a candidate again in 1928. Wright lost Maryville and Polk Township by 13 votes.

Fred Wright, for county clerk, was an easy winner, defeating Alfred Walton by 801 votes. Wright was second high candidate on the county ticket, Judge Bailey being the high man. Wright carried Maryville and Polk Township by 322 votes.

The closest race was for recorder of deeds and many were surprised when it was known that Mrs. Mamie Clardy, present incumbent had been defeated by Jack W. Greeson by 142 votes. The result of this race was not known until nearly all of the precincts were in. Mrs. Clardy lost Maryville and Polk Township by 273 votes.

Judge Jesse F. Robertson, for probate court, had no opposition for re election. His total vote was 5,138.

William R. Tilson, for circuit clerk, defeated his opponent, Amos Sprecher, Democrat, by 452. Sprecher made a good race but Tilson is probably one of the best campaigners in the county, and it was though his majority would be larger. Tilson won Maryville and Polk Township by 106.

Nash Chosen District Deputy Grand Master

A. L. Nash has been appointed district deputy grand master of Masonic lodges in this county, according to a communication from the grand lodge of Missouri. Jonathan Stark, who has been district deputy grand master for several years, was appointed lecturer. He has also been doing this work for some time. Both Mr. Nash and Mr. Stark are members of Nodaway lodge, A. F. & A. M. No. 470.

Miss Martha James will leave this afternoon for Jefferson City after a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. James. Miss James has been visiting here since Sunday.

COUNTY VOTES "NO" ON NO. 4

ENFORCEMENT REPEAL DEFEATED HERE BY LARGE MARGIN.

TWO PROPOSALS WIN

Nos. 1 and 2 Carry in County, No. 3 Is Beaten.—One Precinct Favors No. 4.

Proposals No. 1 and 2 of the constitutional ballot carried by a big vote while Nos. 3 and 4 were defeated by an equally decisive vote in the election in Nodaway County yesterday.

No. 1 was the proposal submitted by referendum petition, to provide a system of workmen's compensation. The total vote for the proposal was 5,525 to 2,391 against, or a favorable majority of 3,134. Every precinct in the county gave a majority for this proposition.

No. 2 was the constitutional amendment proposed by initiative petition to permit legislation granting cities the right to establish a pension system for police officers and the widows and minor children of deceased police officers. The vote in this county was 5,650 for it to 2,587 against, or a majority of 3,063 in favor of it. Every precinct cast a good vote in favor of the proposal.

No. 3, proposed by initiative petition to provide a system of workmen's compensation, and said to be a nullification of No. 1, was badly defeated in this county. The vote for the proposal was 1,157 to 6,936 a majority of 5,779 against, it. Every precinct cast a big vote against it.

No. 4, proposed by initiative petition, to repeal the state enforcement act on intoxicating liquor, was also badly defeated in this county. The vote for it was 1,952 to 7,435 against, or a majority of 5,483 against repeal.

More interest was aroused on this proposition on account of the number of meetings held over the county, yet there was a larger majority against No. 3 than No. 4. Many of the voters did not vote on the other propositions on the constitutional ballots, expressing themselves only on No. 4.

South Jefferson precinct was the only precinct to give a "yes" vote on No. 4. In the third ward in Maryville, which has always been considered the "driest" ward of the city, there was a vote of 357 "yes" to 434 "no". Many observers believe the big vote for the proposal was the result of a number of voters getting confused when voting.

Hunting of Quail Is Banned for 2 Years

Vote on Closing of Season Is 3,043 to 393. —Many Voters Fail to Notice Proposal.

Nodaway County yesterday voted for a closed season on quail for a period of two years. The vote for was 3,043 to 392 against, a favorable majority of 2,651. It will go into effect with the publication of the returns by the county clerk. This will probably be within the next week or so.

Every precinct in the county gave a good majority for the closed season.

Many voters overlooked the proposal to close the season on quail. It was placed at the bottom of the general ballot and on more than half of those cast neither "yes" nor "no" was indicated.

MAN FATALLY HURT IN SPILL

C. W. MILLER, 47, DIES AFTER AUTO CRASH ON RAVENWOOD ROAD.

HAD BEEN GIVEN RIDE

Cars Of Paul Ward and M. A. Weir Hit At Gallagher Corner.—Neither Driver Is Injured.

Charles Walter Miller, 47, a bachelor, was fatally injured in the crash of two automobiles at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Gallagher corner, 8 miles east of Maryville on the Ravenwood road.

Miller, who regarded Maryville as his home, although he was away much of the time, died in St. Francis Hospital at 6 p. m.

The accident victim was riding in a Ford roadster driven by Paul Ward, sales manager for the Maryville Electric Light and Power Co. Ward's car and one driven by M. A. Weir, a farmer near Ravenwood, smashed together at the Gallagher corner.

Ward noticed Miller about one mile west of Ravenwood, walking in the road toward Maryville. He offered the pedestrain a ride, and Miller, who was crippled and walked with a cane, gladly accepted.

As he neared the Gallagher corner, Ward said, he saw the other car, a Ford touring, and it seemed to slow down. Ward speeded up to pass the crossing, thinking that the other car was stopping. Weir, however, denied that he had slowed down. He was going slow already, he said, and, going south on the intersecting road, attempted to cross and turn toward Ravenwood. He did not see Ward's car until too late.

With a collision impending, Ward swerved to the left and succeeding in getting clear except for the right rear wheel, which was hit by the right front wheel of the touring car. Ward's roadster was overturned and thrown into the ditch at the left side of the road.

Miller was caught beneath the car and his chest crushed, causing internal hemorrhage. There was a scalp wound, but physicians said this was not serious.

Ward also was pinned in the car but was only slightly hurt. Weir was unhurt.

The top of Ward's roadster was demolished, three wheels broken, the fenders smashed and the windshield shattered. The other car was not seriously damaged.

The victim, known here as Walt Miller, had no steady occupation. He had been "making" fairs as a concession man, and was on his way to Maryville for a visit with his brother, Tom Miller, with whom he made his home when here.. There are no other near relatives.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Price Funeral Chapel. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Charles A. Neal Is Found Dead in Bed

Discovery Is Made by Neighbors Who Go To Home To Help In Moving.—Lived Alone.

Charles A. Neal, 68 years old, was found dead in bed this morning at his home near Workman's Chapel, northwest of Maryville.

Mr. Neal had complained of not feeling well yesterday when he was moving a load of household furniture from his home to Burlington Junction. He was being assisted in the moving by Irvin Perry, a neighbor. His death was discovered by two other neighbors, Will Kneisley and Will Sherlock, who came to his home about 5 o'clock this morning to help him continue the moving. Neal lived alone on his farm, his wife having died about a year ago.

Dr. F. C. Wallis, coroner, held a view inquest, giving it as his opinion that death was from natural causes, and that it came about midnight.

Surviving are two half-brothers and two half-sisters, John T. Neal, Springfield, Mo.; Melvin Neal, Maryville; Mrs. Alva Pride, Maryville; and Mrs. Charles Gatton, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Mr. Neal was a member of the Pickering I. O. O. F. lodge and the Maryville camp of the Modern Woodmen of America. Funeral services will be in charge of the former organization.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the M. E. Church, South, in Maryville.

Coolidge Sees Economy as G. O. P. Best Hope

President Starts Work On Cutting Budget—Doesn't Comment On Butler's Defeat.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Clinging to his economy program as the administration's hope in 1928, President Coolidge, after a hasty glance this morning at the election returns, started work on cutting government budget estimates.

Director of the Budget Lord, and Secretary of Navy Wilbur and his experts were called to the White House to go over the navy's budget.

Neither Mr. Coolidge nor other White House officials would comment on the defeat of Senator William Butler, Massachusetts, whose election the President urged in his only campaign statement.

GOOD CROWDS VISIT SPECIAL

1,000 NODAWAY COUNTIANS SEE EXHIBITS.

FLEETWOOD IN CHARGE

County Agent Chairman of Meeting Here; Plan Soil Experiments In This District.

More than 1,000 persons in Nodaway County visited the Wabash Farm and Home Special train carrying products and experiments of the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri, which visited Maryville and Burlington Junction this morning.

The train carried the first home demonstration exhibit ever shown on a special of this nature. This part of the special was planned to interest the women especially, but the men showed quite as much interest in the ideal water systems for the home and the various priced systems as in the prize cattle on exhibit. Famous fat-producing cows, four of them from the College of Agriculture, were on the train. They were Campus Lady Ormby Delia, Campus Lady Hengerveld Pauline, Campus Virginia S., and Campus Love C.

M. E. Bernet, general advertising agent of the Wabash Railroad, gave an introductory talk to the farmers when he introduced J. Ross Fleetwood, county extension agent, who was chairman of the Maryville visit.

P. F. Schowengerdt of the soil department of the College of Agriculture gave a talk on the "Missouri Plan of Soil Improvement," explaining in a measure what the Missouri farmer must do to keep his soil in condition. He also stated that a soils and crops program had been worked out by J. Ross Fleetwood and himself when experiments and other special work will be carried on in the county in the near future.

A. F. Stevens of the dairy husbandry department of the College of Agriculture, told local farmers that Nodaway County is noted for the finest beef cattle in this state. He pointed out how the average milk producing cow is a loss to the farmer while the really good cow will bring $3 for $1 invested. Feeing, culling and the proper stock are the essentials. He also pointed out to the farmer that it is not necessary to invest a great amount of money to have a fine herd. A herd may be built up from one or two good animals.

Miss Ida Fra Clark, extension specialist in home economics of the College of Agriculture gave a talk on the home improvements displayed on the car.

About 50 Nodaway Countians registered for the prize contest to make reports of the home convenience surveys in their school districts and the best arguments, in not more than 1500 words, for the modern improvements in farm home.

The next stop of the train was at Stanberry.

HAWES' LEAD INCREASES AS OUT-STATE REPORTS COME IN

DEMOCRAT MAY BEAT WILLIAMS BY OVER 50,000.

COURT RACE IN DOUBT

Otto Takes Lead Over Gantt In Contest for Judge of Supreme Court.

BULLETIN.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—After running behind since the returns began to come in, Judge Robert Otto, Republican candidate for Judge of the Missouri Supreme Court, today obtained a lead of 1,114 votes over his Democratic opponent, Judge Ernest S. Gantt. The vote from 3,647 precincts gave Otto, 451,044, and Gantt 449,930.

Returns from 3,472 precincts in the state, gave Hawes a lead of 47,000 votes.

St. Louis, Nov. 3—Complete returns on Senator, City of St. Louis, Williams, R., long term, 90,898; Hawes, D., 88,676. Williams, short term, 89,942; Hawes, 90,082.

St. Louis, Nov. 3. — Incompete returns from city of St. Louis gave for State Superintendent of Schools, Smith, R., 108,037; Lee, D., 70,353.

For Judge Supreme Court, division one, Otto, R., 108,480; Gantt, D., 70,352.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Election of Harry B. Hawes, Democrat, by a plurality of more than 40,000 votes seemed certain as returns from rural Missouri precincts were tabulated today.

Returns from 3,470 precincts out of the state's 4,086 gave: Hawes, 455,812; Williams, Republican, 408,722.

With 3,241 precincts heard from, the lead of Judge Ernest S. Gantt, Democrat, over Judge Robert W. Otto, Republican, in their race for judge of the Missouri Supreme Court, had been whittled down to 1,716 votes this afternoon. Gantt polled 401,760 votes and Otto 400,044.

It is thought that votes yet to be received from Taney, Texas and Vernon counties might enable Otto to overcome Gantt's lead.

There was also a spirited fight between Charles A. Lee, Democrat, and W. S. Smith, Republican, for state superintendent of schools. The vote from 2,350 precincts in the state gave: Lee, 304,115; Smith, 302,850.

The effort to repeal the state prohibition enforcement law was defeated. Votes tabulated today disclosed that out-state Missouri defeated the proposal, which was listed as Proposition No. 4, despite the fact that St. Louis supported the proposal by almost a 3-to-1 count.

The returns showed: In favor, 187,243; against, 196,412.

Two of the proposals voted on yesterday were approved. They were Propositions Nos. 1 and 2. The first deals with workmen's compensation and the vote was: For, 278,093; against, 125,414.

The second proposal deals with police pensions, and the vote was: For, 265,172; against, 133,414.

The third proposal, also dealing with workmen's compensation, was defeated by a 2-to-1 vote.

On the face of returns tabulated thus far, the Missouri Congressional delegation will line up as follows: First, Romjue, Democrat; Second, Lozier, Democrat; Third, Milligan, Democrat; Fourth, Faust, Republican; Fifth, Combs, Democrat; Sixth, Dickinson, Democrat; Seventh Major, Democrat; Eighth, Nelson, Democrat; Ninth, Cannon, Democrat; Tenth, Niedinghaus, Republican; Eleventh, Cochran, Democrat; Twelfth, Dyer, Republican; Fifteenth, Manlove, Republican; Kiefner, Republican incumbent, was trailing Williams, Democrat, in the thirteenth, and Fullbright, Democrat, held a lead over Adams, Republican, in the Fourteenth.

In the Sixteenth district, Mrs. Anna Cevert, Republican, has been defeated by Rubey, Democrat, it was indicated.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Complete returns, City of St. Louis, constitutional amendments:

Proposition No. 1—Yes, 113,665; no, 52,412.

Proposition No. 2—Yes, 106,292; no 61,325.

Proposition No. 3—Yes, 52,309; no 107,235.

Proposition No. 4—Yes, 110,731; no 48,218.

Kansas City, Nov. 3.—Jackson County Democrats were jubilant today as additional returns continued piling up big majorities for Democratic candidates. With the exception of three offices, legislative—the Republicans lost every post in the county.

A proposal for a free bridge carried by a large majority.

Forest Hanna Loses in His K. C. Race

Former Nodaway Countian Defeated For Jackson County Prosecutor By Majority Of 12,000 Votes.

Kansas City, Nov. 3.—Forest W. Hanna, prosecuting attorney of Jackson County, went down to defeat in yesterday's Democratic landslide here. James R. Page, Democrat, defeated Hanna by a vote of 73,808 to 61,174.

Hanna's defeat was a blow to the entire Republican organization here as the party forces put every ounce of their strength behind the prosecutor. Hanna ran on a platform of his record while in office.

Police Fail to Break Riot at Tombs Prison

Prisoners Take Possession of Yards and Resist Efforts of Officers To Subduc Them.

New York, Nov. 3.—Prisoners at the Tombs prison rioted this afternoon, took over the prison yards and were holding out against a force of several hundred policemen and guards armed with riot and machine guns at 3:20 o'clock.

The prisoners took possession of the yards and resisted all efforts to drive them out. The guards fired from the walls into the yards and set up machine guns to break the ranks of the rioters with bullets.

City police, sent to the prison, surrounded it on all sides ready to shoot prisoners if they succeeded in breaking out.

Claims Great Victory for Prohibition Forces

Drys Win More Than 300 Seats in the House and 26 in Senate, According to Wayne B. Wheeler.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The drys won more than 300 seats in the House out of 435 and 26 out of 35 Senate seats in the off-year election yesterday, according to a statement by Wayne B. Wheeler, Anti-Saloon League spokesman said.

"In every state where the drys had a fighting chance, except Massachusetts, they won the Senatorial contest," Wheeler said.

"In Massachusetts, Governor Fuller, outstanding dry, was re-elected by a 200,000 majority over Mr. Gaston, who said rum was the only issue. This shows the liquor issue was not the dominant one in the defeat of Senator Butler."

Wheeler said the wets may win one of the four referendum votes on repeal of the state enforcement laws.

UPSETS MARK NATION'S VOTE

DEMOCRATS WIN IN NEW YORK, AND MASSACHUSETTS.

NEAR SENATE CONTROL

Republicans Lose Seven Seats There, Possibly Two Others—Democrats Also Gain in House.

New York, Nov. 3.—In a year which will be marked in history for its sweeping, unheralded events, the 1926 Congressional election yesterday staged its surprise.

As all the champions of the elements and sports have been toppled, so were the present Republican majorities in the House and Senate diminished by the electorate in the biennial conflict of the parties for control, although Democrats apparently have failed to obtain a numerical majority in either house of the Congress.

They have, however, gained perhaps seven Republican Senatorial seats and left the occupancy of two others in doubt. They needed nine seats for a clear-cut majority.

In the House, they have gained eleven seats and twenty-three are in doubt. It seems likely they will pick up perhaps twenty seats there.

Al Smith Again Victorious.

In New York, they have elected Al Smith, the wet Democratic leader, governor for the fourth time. Here, also, they have seized the Senatorial seat of James W. Wadsworth, Republican leader, and installed a friend of Smith, Robert F. Wagner, in the Senate. In Massachusetts, they took the chair of Senator William M. Butler, Republican national chairman, and intimate friend of President Coolidge, whose candidacy the President endorsed, and they elected David I. Walsh.

In Arizona, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri and Oklahoma, they have apparently beaten the Republican Senatorial nominees and installed their own candidates. In Colorado, the race still was in doubt twelve hours after the counting began.

It was not so much that they gained seven seats, for it was admitted by the Republicans that the Democrats would gain several seats in yesterday's election, but they were hardly expected to make the gains where they did in overthrowing Butler and Wadsworth in one swoop.

"Close" States To G. O. P.

Republicans won in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania, where, except in Pennsylvania, more doubt was felt than in New York. The Reed committee's disclosures of huge expenditures in the Pennsylvania and Illinois primaries did not prevent the success of the Republican nominees.

Only a few close contests for governorships remain undecided today as the returns rolled in from yesterday's off-year election.

Waterman, Republican, has apparently won the Senatorship over Sweet in Colorado.

Votes taken in a number of states on various phases of the prohibition question, while showing, on the whole, a wet victory, no changes in the prohibition law are expected except in California where the state enforcement act was repealed. Colorado and Missouri refused to repeal similar laws, while Wisconsin, Nevada, and New York voted in favor of certain proposals to modify the present prohibition law. In Illinois and New York the wet vote was overwhelming.

Governorships remain undecided today in Arizona, Nebraska, Nevada and Wyoming. G. W. Hunt, Democrat, was clinging to a slight lead in Arizona and in Nebraska and Nevada, the Republican candidates were ahead, but their margins were not decisive.

California Repeals Dry Law.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—California has repealed the state dry enforcement law, downed a bill to legalize horse race betting, forbidden placing the Bible in the public schools, and gone against a measure to place a 2-cent tax on oleomargine, on the face of returns compiled today.

Halls-Mills Murder Case Attracts Attention

State Begins Work Of Unraveling Four-Year-Old Mystery Of Slaying Of Pastor And Sweetheart.

Somerset, N. J., Nov. 3.—With a "hear ye, hear ye" from the court crier, the case of the state of New Jersey against Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, Henry Stevens and Willie Stevens went on trial today.

Mrs. Hall and her brothers, charged with the murder of Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, sat in the crowded Somerset County courtroom as the state began its efforts to solve the four-year-old mystery.

Behind the defendants sat scores of prospective witnesses who will be called upon to furnish such details in recalling events on the night of September 14, 1922 when Hall and his choir-singer sweetheart were shot to death as they kept a tryst on the Phillips farm near new Brunswick.

This was the announcement today of Judge James R. Hamilton of Travis County, to whose court the case was transferred from Tarrant County on a change of venue yesterday.

Behm Funeral to Be Tomorrow Morning

Services Will Be Held At 9 O'Clock at St. Mary's Church—Conducted By Rev. Father Richard.

Funeral services for Peter Behm, who died at 3:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. Francis Hospital, will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. Father Richard will officiate and burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery. The body is at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Maurice Sherlock, north of Maryville.

Death was caused by complications arising from injuries received in a fall three weeks ago. When about 3 years old Mr. Behm came to the United States with his parents from Luxemburg, Germany, where he was born July 14, 1844. The family located in Wisconsin and here Mr. Behm lived until about fifty-three years ago when he came to Nodaway County. His home had been in this county since. He was engaged in business in Pickering about twenty years.

Clubs Hold Meeting at High School Today

Program Is Given—L. L. St. Clair Talks On Daily Personal Programs.

A joint session of the Hi-Y Club and the two Girl Reserve organizations of the Maryville High School was held this morning in the auditorium. Students regularly enrolled in study hall at that time were guests of the three clubs. Winifred Todd presided.

The program follows: Scripture, Walter Allen; prayer, Neva Wilkerson; saxaphone solo, Edward Hudson; xlyophone solo, Carl Leroy Fisher; piano solo, Viola Henderson; reading, Doris Wallace.

L. L. St. Clair, sponsor of the Hi-Y Club, gave a talk on how the Hi-Y and Girl Reserve could co-operate to better the standards of the school. The high school principal suggested that the students have a daily personal program to follow. Get up at an established time, study at regular intervals, and have plenty of good recreation with enough time left for three hours to give in school studies at an evening. Mr. St. Clair said that every student should be identified with some church and give time to the life of the church.

J. Ross Fleetwood, county extension agent, was in Burlington Junction this morning when he attended the meeting held at the farm special.

This and That

I noticed Christmas seals on sale at several Maryville stores today. Soon someone will begin counting the shopping days until Christmas.

The first mention of baseball is in the Bible. Eve stole first, Adam stole second, Gideon rattled the pitchers, Goliath was put out by David and the Prodigal Son made a home run—Silent Partner.

The following words are printed on a placard at the entrance of the Methodist Church South, "Since we have two ears and only one mouth we should say half as much as we hear."

J. Ross Fleetwood who had charge of the meeting of the farmers at the farm and home special this morning warned the farmers about letting their wives see these new home improvements lest the women become so efficient that they have no work to keep them busy. Just like a man.

M. E. Bernet, general advertising agent of the Wabash Railroad, visited Maryville with the farm special today. He said: "I have always heard that Nodaway County is one of the very finest and richest in the state. I am glad to see the town."

This is the day after—election. The editors of this paper took "returns" all night. They have been very "cranky" with us girls today.

Faculty Members Appear in Program

Red Cross Roll Call Also Is Started in Assembly at College This Morning.

Faculty members of the State Teachers College Conservatory of Music gave half the program at the College assembly this morning. The remainder of the hour was devoted to a talk on the Red Cross Roll Call by Edward W. Gray.

Miss Roma Vinzant, violinist; Thomas H. Annett, pianist; Bernhard Bronson, baritone; and H. O. Hickernell, trombonist; were the instructors on the musical part of the program. It is a feature of each quarter at the College that the faculty of the Conservatory give a program.

The Red Cross Roll Call will start at the College tomorrow morning, much earlier than in the city of Maryville. This is done because of the meeting of the State Teachers Association in Kansas City next week. An appeal was made to the students and faculty of the College to respond to the Roll Call. This appeal was voiced by Uel W. Lamkin, president of the College, and by Burdette Yeo, president of the student government association.

Edward W. Gray, chairman of the disaster relief committee of the Nodaway County Chapter, American Red Cross, and Glenn Reese, chairman of the Roll Call, were present at the assembly this morning. Mr. Gray talked on "The Legion of Mercy."

"There are six angles from which the Red Cross serves," Mr. Gray said. He then enumerated these points as: disaster relief, war service, home hygiene, junior Red Cross, district nursing, and international affairs, stressing the importance of each.

Mr. Gray told of the growth of the Red Cross since its organization in 1905, and appealed to the students and faculty of the Colege to respond to the Roll Call.

Following is the program given by the music faculty:

"Midnight Bells," Kreisler, Miss Vinzant.

"Rigoletto," Liszt, Mr. Annett.

"Fill a Glass With Golden Wine," Quilter, and "Shall I Wasting in Despair," Wilson, Mr. Bronson.

"The Patriot," Pryor, and "Evening Star," Wagner, Mr. Hickernell.

Community Meeting at Barnes School

A community meeting in form of a Hallowe'en masquerade party was held at the Barnes school Thursday night, Oct. 28. The schoolroom was decorated with black cats, bats, owls, witches and black and orange crepe paper. The guests were greeted at the door by a ghost. They were then told to follow the black cats who led them to their seats. Mrs. Charles Warner and Mrs. Charles Crawford, who were dressed as bride and bridegroom were awarded the prizes for the best costumes.

Various Hallowe'en stunts, fortune telling and ghost stories were the amusements of the evening. An old witch served refreshments of apples, doughnuts and punch to about sixty guests.

Golda Eckles is teacher at the Barnes school.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

JUDITH MARTIN, young, red-haired, beautiful, arriving to teach in Pendleton University meets an earnest man who rescues her bandbox on the train, but refuses to enter into conversation with her.

As she steps from the train at Pendleton station, a strange young man giant, green-eyed, seizes her, kisses her and without a word thrusts her into a taxi and vanishes.

She meets black-haired MYRA ALDRICH in her boarding house. Myra is violently in love with one ERIC WALTERS.

Judith avoids the kisser on the campus and in faculty meeting, makes the acquaintance of Dr. Peter Dorn, astronomy professor, who as a stranger had helped her with her hatbox on the train.

In a tea shop with Judith, Myra hears that her Eric has kissed a girl at the station, on a 20 bet.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER IV.

Judith saw a tawny-haired woman beside Wetherel, staring at Myra with intense interest. After a moment her golden brown eyes began to smile slightly and she drew Will into conversation.

The laughter of the group rang out on alien topics. Judith saw Myra shudder convulsively for a second. Then the girl got up and rushed for the door.

Wetherel and his tawny-haired companion had turned, at sound of the banging door, and Wetherel caught sight of Judith for the first time. In an instant he was beside her table.

Even in her discomfiture, Judith smiled at the insincerity of his manner. But he took her arm and drew her back with him to his table.

"This, ladies and gentlemen," he said, with mock heroics, "is a childhood friend of mine. I am in honor bound to steer her right, and my first move will therefore be to introduce her to Eve Gerhart.

"Eve, meet—" He stopped in consternation, and a shout went up from the crowd.

"A childhood friend, and he doesn't know her name!" cried one of the men.

The golden-haired woman brought the raillery to an end by smiling warmly at Judith and saying, "Perhaps she will tell us herself."

"It's Judith Martin," said Judith, slipping into the chair proffered her. "I met Mr. Wetherel on the train. He told me his name, though I didn't tell mine."

"He would!" said somebody.

"Myra must be completely sunk," said Wetherel. "I assure you I had no idea she's throw a fit over that silly kiss affair of Eric's."

"Why," continued Wetherel, "it was only a bet anyway, an easy way to make $20. And I hear Eric's father has cut down on his cash this year. He probably needed the money."

Judith's face was a study in deepening scarlet. She toyed with her teaspoon under Eve's shrewd gaze.

Will Wetherel was in his element. With a friendly audience, he could talk four hours around a tea table. "Anyhow, I've no sympathy with a girl who lets herself fall so hard for a man before he falls for her. Myra should have better defenses."

Judith looked up. "Doesn't this Waters care for her? I understood they were almost engaged."

Wetherel shrugged his shoulders. "So are Waters and a dozen other girls. But I daresay he's fondest of her. They're childhood friends." Then, as the others laughed, he added, "Really childhood friends, I mean. Not just, er-train acquaintances." He grinned.

Judith had a chance to observe Eve Gerhart more closely. She was a woman apparently in her early thirties, beautiful in a richness of coloring and a supple grace of body, but perhaps a little world-weary, in her quiet moments. There was skepticism in her smile sometimes.

A thin gold wedding ring on her left hand puzzled Judith. There was nothing matronly about her, nor had she the usual mannerisms of a widow, merry or otherwise.

At last a campus bell broke in on their party, and Judith rose. "I have some unpacking to do," she explained, "and some shopping also. I hope I'll see you again."

She walked briskly home, her face reflecting the pleasure of the gay conversation. Wetherel was, after all, an amusing chap and friendly.

All was quiet when she passed Myra's door and went into her own room. She walked to the dresser and began to comb her hair.

A scrambling outside the window caused her to turn. A little brown squirrel sat on the railing of a tiny balcony outside the window, munching a nut and staring solemnly at her through the pane. Suddenly he turned and scampered down out of sight. Judith walked to the window and observed that a trellis led to the balcony, which offered easy ascent to her window. She frowned slightly, and turned the window latch.

As she stood there the door opened behind her, and Myra came in. She dragged one foot after the other and held the satin robe about her with a languid hand. Her face was stained with tears.

Judith could find nothing to say, and Myra advanced to the bed and threw herself upon it, burying her head in her arms. But she made no sound of weeping.

Judith crossed the room and sat down beside her, laying her hand on Myra's shoulder. After a few moments of silence, Myra sat up against the pollows. "You're awfully good," she said. "I think you'd really like to help me."

Judith nodded. The look of anxiety had deepened in her face.

"I'm an awful fool," burst out Myra, twisting her wet handkerchief. "Nobody knows it better than I do. But it doesn't do any good to know it. I can't change. I've never had a moment's peace since I fell in love with Eric."

"Does he know you feel like this?" asked Judith slowly.

Myra shook her head thoughtfully. "I guess not. I don't want him to know, of course. He's too conceited already. But he must have guessed some of it. He takes me for granted. Darn!" She tossed her head. "What a fool I am!"

"Well," said Judith, "the thing for you to do is to look for pastures new. Play around a bit. If he does care, that is the best way to make him show it, and if he doesn't you'll find somebody you like better. You have to keep the old explorer's soul alive in you in this world—and go 'round corners as if you expected to find the lost Atlantis on the other side. When your curiosity about life and love dies, you're done for."

Myra looked at her wonderingly. "You talk pretty wisely," she said. "I believe you do know something about love, for all your highbrow face."

Judith laughed. "I'll get some hot water and make you a cup of coffee," she said. "This discussion has gone far enough."

When she came back with a full percolator, Myra was lying composedly enough, carelessly glancing through a university catalog that had lain on the bed beside her.

As Judith bent over to attach the electric percolator, she heard Myra make a breathless ejaculation. "Why Jude, here's a woman in the faculty list with your very name, 'Judith Martin, B. A. M. A., Latin and English. Isn't that funny?"

Judith took a long breath and set the percolator down on the table. "Well, no, considering that that's MY name."

"Do you mean," inquired Myra, heavily, "that you've been cheating me into thinking you were a student all this time?" Her eyes were narrowed.

Judith threw her head back. "I cannot see that it is anybody's affair but my own whether I am a teacher or a student."

Myra answered in the same heavy tone. "And I've been telling my life history and my love affairs to a schoolteacher! Oh, my God! I'm a worse fool even than I thought."

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Illinois voters gambled with the wishes of the United States Senate in yesterday's election and elected Frank L. Smith to the body despite the fact his seat is almost certain to be contested on the floor of the Senate.

Despite Smith's admission of accepting campaign gifts from the utilities interests, whose rates he regulated as chairman of the state commerce commission, and despite the open threats that have been made that his seat will be opposed, he was given a plurality over George E. Brennan, "dripping wet" Democrat, which may reach 75,000 or more.

Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—The political complexion of the Indiana delegation in Congress apparently will remain unchanged, it was indicated today with the receipt of returns from outside precincts on the result of yesterday's balloting.

Senator James E. Watson and Senator Arthur Robinson, Republicans, seeking return to the Senate, were leading their Democratic opponents by majorities of approximately 13,000 and 15,000 respectively.

STOP COLDS at the START

OUR COLLEGE

What The Students Out On The Hill Are Doing

College pep will be on the overflow Friday when the Bearcats play St. Benedict's College on the local gridiron. Both the boys' and girls' pep squads have been rehearsing all week on "stunts" and something interesting is promised between halves.

The boys' pep squad will sponsor a matinee dance in the east gymnasium of the administration building at 3:20 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

There will be a dance at Residence Hall Saturday night for students and faculty members of the College.

Because many of the faculty members of the College will be in Kansas City next week, there will be no weekly assembly at the College on Wednesday morning. The 10 o'clock classes will meet on Wednesday and will not meet on Friday.

A special arrangement has been made for College classes Friday. Because of the football game at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the 1:20 class will meet at 1 o'clock, and the 3:20 class will meet at 1:40 o'clock. The 2:20 o'clock class is off on Friday afternoons.

Students of the College will assemble in mass meeting at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Burdett Yeo, student president, said today: "We are going to show the Bearcats that we are behind them to the last man."

Uel W. Lamkin, president of the College; W. A. Rickenbrode, registrar; and Dr. Jesse Miller of Maryville, newly appointed board of regents member, went to St. Joseph late this morning for a special meeting of the regents.

The industrial arts department at the College is planning an enlarged program of activities for coming terms. In the opinion of U. G. Whiffen, instructor, there is a great demand for manual arts instructors who can give instruction in sheet metal work, concrete, and electricity. Subjects of this nature will likely be placed in the curriculum of the department soon.

The demand at present, according to Mr. Whiffen, is mainly for junior high school teachers.

An additional moving picture machine and a new sereen have been purchased by the College. The new screen will take the place of the one now in the College auditorium, and the extra machine will augment the one now in use. This will do away with the wait necessitated in the past between reels.

The College student council will have its regular meeting in the recreation room at the College at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. The student council is now functioning well, and a number of important matters will be discussed at the meeting tomorrow night.

Additional plans for the program for this year will be discussed by the Women's Athletic Association of the College at a meeting late this afternoon. The W. A. A., has almost completed its program of activity for the rest of this year.

High School to Play Cameron This Week

Spoofhounds Will Be Handicapped By Absence Of Kissinger, Whose Grades Are Down.

Facing the hardest game of the season, the Spoofhounds, football team of Maryville High School, are going through hard work-outs this week in preparation for their trip to Cameron on Friday.

In Cameron the Spoofhounds will meet their most formidable opponents of the season and probably champions of Northwest Missouri. It will be a badly crippled Spoofhound team, as once more low grades have taken their toll from the squad. Chief among the casualties is halfback Kissinger, a power on the football field but a second string man in the classroom. Two others, a substitute back and a substitute lineman, will not make the Cameron trip.

Coaches Croy and Graham have been making many shifts in the lineup this week, in an attempt to discover a backfield combination that will make Kissinger's absence unfelt. Keever will start at fullback and Swinford at quarter. The halfback positions are in doubt, with Bush or Stanfield as likely starters in one of them. For the other, McMurry may be shifted from end, or there may be another "dark horse."

Other workouts this week have been directed to defense against forward passes and end runs. On offense the coaches characterized the preparation as straight football with few thrills.

The strength of the Cameron team is indicated by victories over Maysville, Lafayette of St. Joseph and Central of St. Joseph. Lafayette, which defeated Maryville, lost to Cameron, 19-0, while the score of the Cameron-Central game was 6-0.

The trip will be made by automobile if weather and roads permit.

The next home game for the Spoofhounds will be on November 19, when Maysville will send the opposing team. This will be the "homecoming" game for the High School.

Good Crowd Hears Election Returns

The circuit courtroom was well filled long before 8 o'clock last night to get reports from the election throught the Democrat-Forum and Tribune. Reports from Nodaway County were read and posted on a bulletin board, while state and out-of-state reports were read. A radio, installed by the Price Furniture Co., gave additional reports.

Interest in the county election was greater at the courtroom, and the main topic of conversation seemed to be the Greeson-Clardy race for recorder of deeds. When the reports had been read from twenty of the twenty-four precincts in the county, the interest bordered on enthusiasm, and it was noticeable that both candidates were well represented.

A number of the candidates for the county offices were in the courtroom, while others received reports by telephone as soon as they were read by Democrat-Forum representatives.

The precinct reports came in rapidly at first, but were slower after 9 o'clock. Shortly after 10 o'clock it was announced that the report from Jackson township, the only one not in, would probably not be heard until midnight. Then the crowd dispersed.

A number of women were among those who heard the reports.

Would Shut Down Gas Works

"My stomach has been so filled with gas for the last three years that I felt I could pretty nearly supply our town. I also had frequent pains in right side in region of the appendix. Doctors didn't help much. One day my neighbor told me about what MAYR'S had done for him and I got a bottle of our druggist. I can say that it will do all and more than you claim for it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Grain prices did not get far either way on the Chicago Board of Trade today, however, wheat steadied with a slightly better tone. Corn continued to slump.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅛ cent higher on the strength of short coverings, claims of a million bushel export business and the strong tone of Winnipeg and Duluth. Cash prices were steady to ½ cent lower.

After dominating the market for several days, corn relinquished its leadership to wheat and closed ¼ to ½ cent lower. Cash prices were steady to ½ cent off.

Oats finally broke out of the rut when an advance of ⅞ to 1 cent was scored on all deliveries. Spot values were steady.

Provisions closed higher.

Maryville and Polk Township "Scratch"

Williams and Faust Carry Four Wards Here, But So Do Lee and Gantt.—Same in County Ticket.

Maryville and Polk township, like the rest of Nodaway County, voted a "split ticket" at yesterday's election.

Senator George H. Williams carried the four wards here over Harry B. Hawes, his Democratic opponent, for both the long and short terms. The vote for the long term was 1,511 to 1,469 and for the short term, 1,513 to 1,465.

The Democratic candidates for the two other state offices were given majorities, while the Republican nominee for Congress had a majority. The votes on these officers follow.

For superintendent: W. S. Smith, 1,448; Charles A. Lee, 1,550.

For Supreme Court: Robert W. Otto, 1,479; Ernest S. Gantt, 1,550.

For Congressman: Charles L. Faust, 1,589; John C. Whitsell, 1,409.

On county offices the party tickets were treated with equal disrespect. These totals for the four wards follow:

For Representative: W. H. Burr, 1,349; William Job, 1,669.

For Presiding Judge: E. T. Bailey, 1,593; Henry Heitman, 1,316.

For County Judge (South District): Chas. S. Armstrong, 1,609; Dan Skidmore, 1,346.

For Prosecuting Attorney: Lowell L. Livengood, 1,515; George P. Wright, 1,502.

For Probate Judge: Jesse F. Robertson, 1,676.

For Circuit Clerk: William R. Tilson, 1,558; Amos Sprecher, 1,452.

For County Clerk: Alfred Walton, 1,342; Fred Wright, 1,664.

For Recorder: Jack W. Greeson, 1,650; Mamie E. Clardy, 1,377.

Vote Is Less Than in Previous Years

Lack Of Interest In Indicated By Balloting Yesterday.—Falls 3,094 Below 1924 Total.

The total vote cast in the election in Nodaway County yesterday was 3,094 votes less than the total cast in 1924 and less by 907 votes than that cast in 1922, also an off year. This would indicate a lack of interest and that many of the voters here failed to express themselves. It was said by party leaders before the election that Proposal No. 4, to repeal the state enforcement act, was creating more interest and would bring out more voters than the candidates themselves.

The total vote yesterday for the senatorship was 9,261. In 1924, the total vote for governor was 12,355, and in 1922, also an off-year election, the total vote for state superintendent of schools was 10,169.

Returns From County Come in Very Good

North Grant Precinct First To Report —All In But Jackson At 10 O'Clock.

The election returns received by The Democrat-Forum last night came in better than they had for a long time. The first precinct to report was North Grant, when Ed S. Fannon, judge at the precinct there, phoned in his returns about 7 o'clock. From then on until 10 o'clock, all of the precincts had reported except Jackson township. The vote from Jackson did not come in until nearly midnight.

The Democrat-Forum wishes to express its appreciation to these judges of election over the county who kindly tele honed these returns in.

Official Tabulation to Be Made Friday

The vote at yesterday's election will be cast up by the county court Friday. Several absentee ballots will be received by that time but they are not expected to make any changes except in the total vote for each candidate.

Concrete pavement gives greater value per dollar than any other type

Kansas City's Famous "Covered Wagon" Trails Are Now Concrete Paved

A little, old frontier town—Westport Landing, on the river—has grown into Kansas City, Missouri, "The Heart of America." Blanketed Indians on ponies, westbound trains of covered wagons, have given place to the pounding, hurrying motor traffic of a twentieth century metropolis.

Portland cement concrete pavement has done its share to make this growth possible.

McGee Street Trafficway, for instance, must carry 25,000 trucks, busses, passenger cars every day. This important thoroughfare was paved with concrete twelve years ago, laid as a foundation for a "wearing surface" which was never put on. This "foundation" has acceptably met the requirements of the heavy traffic with little expenditure for maintenance.

Kansas City now has more than 3,175,000 square yards of concrete streets.

Clean, handsome streets, big city streets and fine residence streets—safe for traffic in all weather. That's what concrete paving means to Kansas City, or any other city.

All of the facts are in our free booklet on "Concrete Streets." Ask for your copy.
